

Arriva K65 bus service is currently out of service due to industrial action and is to last for an undisclosed period of time.

Please ensure you make alternative arrangements for your child's journey if they use this service both to school and back home.

It is only Arriva services that this applies to. Please see local news for further details and updates.